Hi Janet,

This is great, thank you Melissa. I will submit it to the Remake Learning Days calendar.

Melissa, if you could let me know how many kits (approx) will be available that would be helpful.

Again, thank you for putting this together.

Sarah

Hi Sarah and Janet,

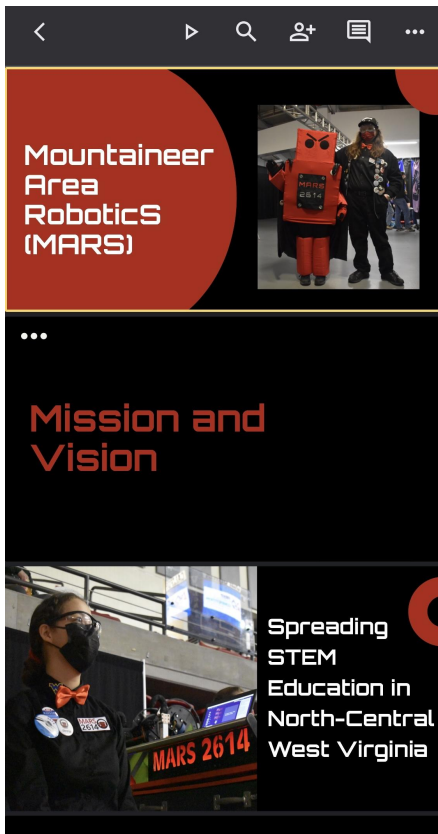

We can provide 300 kits. I included the number but it must have been inadvertently omitted during the revision process. Apologies!

We would love to be featured on your radio show! We have three members, one coach and two high school members, who would be able to be physically present for the show on Tuesday 11/22. Do you have any particular questions for us? Is it ok that we bring three people?

Can't wait to work with you,
